

EBCI Tribal Option

The Mission of the Cherokee Indian Hospital is to be the provider of choice for the community by providing accessible, patient and family centered quality healthcare with responsible management of the Tribes resources.

TITLE: EBCI Tribal Option Whistleblower Protection Policy

REVIEWED AND APPROVED BY: CIHA Executive Committee

EFFECTIVE DATE: 2/25/2021

LAST REVIEWED: 2/11/2022

PURPOSE:

To establish a policy of protection of whistleblower rights as required by the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services/Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians (NC DHHS/EBCI) Tribal Option Contract. The whistleblower protections create for Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority (CIHA) and its division EBCI Tribal Option an environment that aligns with its core purpose, mission, vision, and guiding principles.

STAFF GOVERNED BY THIS POLICY:

CIHA staff, EBCI Tribal Option staff, internal and external Primary Care Providers (PCPs), subcontractors, and all other agents of EBCI Tribal Option.

POLICY:

CIHA and EBCI Tribal Option shall protect their employees, subcontractors, and Network providers who report activities believed to be mismanaged, illegal, dishonest, unethical, a gross waste of funds, a lack of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to health and safety or are otherwise improper.

CIHA and EBCI Tribal Option shall not intimidate or retaliate against individuals for exercising their whistleblowing rights. CIHA and EBCI Tribal Option shall not discharge, threaten, or discriminate against an employee, subcontractor, or Network provider regarding their compensation, terms, conditions, location, or privileges of employment or contract execution.

EBCI Tribal Option and CIHA's intent is that the confidentiality of the whistleblower will be maintained; however, identification may have to be disclosed for a thorough investigation in order to comply with the law and to provide the accused individuals their legal rights of defense.

Whistleblower protected individuals include:

- The employee, subcontractor, Network provider, or a person acting on behalf of the individual who reports to a public body such as a regulatory agency or who is about to report to a public body on a matter of concern;
- The employee, subcontractor, or Network provider who participates in a court action, an investigation, a hearing, or an injury held by a public body on a matter of concern.

CIHA and EBCI Tribal Option may not exclude an employee or other person who makes an allegation from receiving a benefit, bid on contracts, or other rights/entitlements. Policy provisions do not:

- Require the organization to compensate an employee or subcontractor for participation in a court action or in an investigation, hearing, or inquiry by a public body;
- Forbid the entity from compensating an employee or subcontractor for participation in a court action or in an investigation, hearing, or inquiry by a public body;
- Sanction the disclosure of information that is legally required to be confidential.

Limitation to protections:

- An individual is not entitled to the protections under this Policy unless he/she reasonably believes that the information reported is (or is about to become) a concern;
- The information is reported in good faith, and/or
- An individual is eligible to the protections under this Policy only if the matter of concern is not the result of conduct by the individual requesting protection, unless it is the result of the person's conduct that was required by his/her employer.

EBCI Tribal Option and CIHA shall act in accordance with the Federal False Claims Act and Applicable State False Claims Act Provisions, 31 U.S.C. § 3730 and other applicable federal, state, and tribal laws and regulations:

- Federal False Claims Act (FCA)

The federal FCA prohibits knowingly submitting (or causing to be submitted) to the federal government false or fraudulent claims for payment or approval. It prohibits knowingly making or using (or causing to be made or used) a false record or statement to get a false or fraudulent claim paid or approved. The federal FCA also prohibits knowingly making or using (or causing to be made or used) a false record or statement of material to an obligation to pay or transmit money or property to the federal government or to knowingly and improperly avoid or decrease an obligation to pay or transmit money or property to the federal government.

This hospital policy is applicable to the Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority and other locations where services of this hospital are provided.

- Protections and Awards for whistleblowers under the federal FCA includes no retaliation. The federal FCA protects and provides relief to any associate, contractor, or agent from retaliatory actions taken by the company if the individual acts as a whistleblower. These retaliatory actions include discharge, demotion, suspension, threats, harassment, and any other discrimination against the associate, contractor, or agent resulting from following the federal FCA requirements and this Policy.

Additional examples of relevant laws include, but are not limited to:

- Anti-Kickback Statute (AKS);
- Beneficiary Inducement Law;
- Exclusion Statute;
- Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA);
- Other relevant federal Fraud, Waste and Abuse (FWA) laws include:
 - Physician Self-Referral Prohibition (Stark Law);
 - Civil Monetary Penalties Law (CMPL);
 - Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), and
 - Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 and subsequent issued guidance by the Centers of Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) or NC Medicaid.

DEFINITIONS:

Abuse

Includes any practice that is inconsistent with acceptable fiscal, business, medical, or healthcare practices that unnecessarily increase costs or causes unnecessary harm.

EBCI Tribal Option Contract

The Indian Managed Care Entity Contract #30-2020-014-DHB between the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Health Benefits and Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority. Subsequent revisions and amendments are also included in this definition. This Contract is also referred to as the NC DHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract.

Employee

An individual hired by CIHA or a member of the EBCI Tribal Option PCP Network.

Fraud

The wrongful or criminal deception intended to result in financial or personal gain.

Matter of Concern

- A violation of a state, federal, or tribal law, regulation, or ordinance;
- A danger to public health or safety, and/or
- Inappropriate management, substantial waste of funds, or an apparent abuse of authority.

This hospital policy is applicable to the Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority and other locations where services of this hospital are provided.

Subcontractor

An entity having an arrangement with Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority (CIHA) and EBCI Tribal Option, where CIHA/EBCI Tribal Option uses the products and/or services of that entity to fulfill some of its obligations under the NC DHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract. Use of a subcontractor does not create a contractual relationship between the subcontractor and NC DHHS, only CIHA. Network PCPs are not considered subcontractors for purposes of this Policy or the NC DHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract.

Waste

The inappropriate use of resources.

Whistleblower

An employee, internal and external PCPs, subcontractors, and all other agents of the EBCI Tribal Option who report(s) to one or more of the parties specified in this Policy an activity that he/she considers to be mismanaged, illegal, dishonest, unethical, a gross waste of funds, an absence of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to public health and safety or are otherwise improper.

PROCEDURE:

Employees, internal and external PCPs, subcontractors, and all other agents of EBCI Tribal Option as defined shall have the right to file a whistleblower complaint with:

- CIHA 1-828-497-9163 or EBCI Tribal Option: 1-800-262-9992
- NC DHHS, Office of the Secretary: 1-919-855-4800
- Office of the State Auditor Hotline: 1-800-730-TIPS (1-800-730-8477)
- NC Office of the Attorney General: 1-919-881-2320
- U.S. Office of Inspector General Fraud Line: 1-800-HHS-TIPS (1-800-447-8477)
- EBCI Fraud, Waste and Abuse Tip Line: 1-800-455-9014
- NC Medicaid Fraud, Waste and Abuse Tip Line: 1-877-DMA-TIP1 (1-877-362-8471)

In the instance that an employee has a concern about or knowledge of an illegal or dishonest activity, the CIHA/EBCI Tribal Option employee is encouraged to report the allegation to his/her immediate supervisor. In the event that the concern is in regards to their immediate supervisor, the employee may report to the next individual in the chain of command or report to the EBCI Tribal Option/CIHA Compliance Officer.

Subcontractors, Network PCPs, or other agents of EBCI Tribal Option/CIHA should report to their EBCI Tribal Option point of contact or the EBCI Tribal Option/CIHA Compliance Officer.

Examples of illegal or dishonest activities include violations of federal, state, or local laws, billing for services not performed or for goods not delivered, and other fraudulent financial reporting. The employee, subcontractor, or PCP Network members should exercise good judgement to avoid a baseless allegation. An employee, PCP Network member, and/or subcontractor may be subject to disciplinary action if he/she should intentionally file a false report of wrongdoing.

This hospital policy is applicable to the Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority and other locations where services of this hospital are provided.

The report of a concern of an illegal or dishonest activity by an EBCI Tribal Option/CIHA employee will be forwarded by the receiving supervisor or contact person to the CIHA Human Resources (HR) Manager, who is responsible for facilitating the investigation and coordinating any required corrective action.

Any concerns applicable to the CIHA HR Manager should be reported to the CIHA/EBCI Tribal Option Compliance Officer.

The whistleblower is not responsible for investigating the alleged illegal or dishonest activity or for determining if fault or corrective measures are needed. The CIHA HR Manager and/or the EBCI Tribal Option Director are the responsible party(ies) with applicable consultation from subject experts.

The responsible party shall initiate an investigation within twenty-one (21) CIHA business days of receipt of concern. The investigation may include, but is not limited to:

- Interviews;
- Research and analysis of materials or data;
- Consultation with or review by subject matter experts;
- Referral to federal or state regulatory agency to conduct the investigation and/or handle disposition of the allegation, and
- Referral to federal, state, or tribal law enforcement or other legal entity to conduct the investigation and/or handle the disposition of the allegation.

Disposition or rendering decision of the allegation of concern will be completed as reasonably possible given the nature of the allegation. In the event of Medicaid fraud, waste or abuse, including credible allegations of fraud, referrals shall be made to the NC Medicaid Program Integrity Office. At no point in the review of the allegation shall the review or investigation infringe on the referral or create obstacle for any action to be taken by a regulatory or enforcing agency.

In all aspects of the EBCI Tribal Option Whistleblower Policy, it is expected that privacy protections and compliance will be maintained. This Policy and its procedures will compliment and work in tandem with the EBCI Tribal Option Fraud Prevention Policy and Fraud Prevention Plan. In addition, EBCI Tribal Option and CIHA shall train all their employees, subcontractors, and the PCP Network on the EBCI Tribal Option Fraud Prevention Policy and Plan. This referenced policy and plan includes reporting requirements and processes and definitions.
