TITLE: EBCI Tribal Option, AMH, and AMH+ Member and Provider Grievance Policy

REVIEWED AND APPROVED BY: CIHA Executive Committee

EFFECTIVE DATE: 2/18/2021

LAST REVIEWED: 4/6/2023

POLICY OWNER: EBCI Tribal Option Member Services Manager and EBCI Tribal Option Provider Network Manager

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this Policy is to provide and administer a fair and efficient Medicaid grievance process in accordance with the requirements established by federal law and the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract and to establish an Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians (EBCI) Tribal Option, AMH, and AMH+ Member and Provider Grievance Policy and procedures for EBCI Tribal Option Members and providers in accordance with requirements established in the Indian Managed Care Contract between the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (NCDHHS), Division of Health Benefits (DHB) and Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority (CIHA) (known as the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract) and 42 C.F.R. § 438.66(c) (2-3).

This Policy also serves as the Advanced Medical Home (AMH) and Advanced Medical Home Plus (AMH+) policy document for communication to Members, family members, and caregivers. References to the AMH+ policies and procedures contained in this document are only applicable when the CIHA AMH+ becomes effective.

STAFF GOVERNED BY THIS POLICY:

This Policy applies to all:

- CIHA Executive staff;
- EBCI Tribal Option staff;

EBCI Tribal Option, AMH, and AMH+ Member and Provider Grievance Policy

This is a controlled document for internal use only. Any document appearing in paper hard copy form are not controlled and should be verified with the electronic file version prior to use.

CIHA and EBCI Tribal Option staff are accountable to the CIHA Personnel Manual and are subject to filing personnel grievances as outlined in the CIHA Personnel Manual, Section 15.00 Employee Grievance Procedure. All staff governed by this Policy are subject to this EBCI Tribal Option Member and Provider Grievance Policy.

POLICY:

EBCI Tribal Option is committed to resolving concerns, issues, or complaints promptly and immediately. The EBCI Tribal Option encourages open communication at the time of the event in which the Member or provider is not satisfied. In the event the Member or the provider is not pleased with the complaint resolution, the EBCI Tribal Option encourages the Member or provider to exercise their right to file a grievance.

Grievances may be related to, but are not limited to, issues such as quality of care, dissatisfaction with Care Manager or other EBCI Tribal Option staff, complaints related to PCPs, professional conduct, failure to respect Member’s rights, and program fraud.

DEFINITIONS:

Adverse Benefit Determination

Has the same meaning as Adverse Benefit Determination as defined in 42 C.F.R. § 438.400. Adverse Benefit Determinations relate to decisions made by a Local Management Entity/Managed Care Organization (LME/MCO) for services covered by the LME/MCO.

Adverse Determination

Has the same meaning as Adverse Determination as defined in N.C.G.S. 108A-70.9A. Adverse Determinations relate to decisions made by NCDHHS or NCDHHS’ designated contractor for services provided under Medicaid Direct.

Appeal

The process for a Member to seek review of an Adverse Determination or an Adverse Benefit Determination.

Authorized Representative

An individual, provider, or organization either designated by a Beneficiary or authorized by law or court order to act on their behalf in assisting with the individual's participation in the Medicaid Managed Care program. With written consent of the Member, or as otherwise legally authorized, an

This hospital policy is applicable to the Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority and other locations where services of this hospital are provided.

Authorized Representative may, for example, request an appeal, file a grievance, or request a State Fair Hearing on behalf of the Beneficiary with the exception that a provider cannot request continuation of Benefits.

Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority (CIHA)

An independent component unit of the Eastern Band of Cherokee tribal government to oversee, supervise, and direct the operations of the Cherokee Indian Hospital and other health programs assigned to CIHA by the EBCI Tribal Council.

Code of Federal Regulations (CFR)

A compilation of administrative laws governing federal regulatory agency practice and procedures. This includes such agencies as Medicaid, Medicare, and Indian Health Service.

Complaint

Complaints are Member issues that can be resolved promptly or within twenty-four (24) hours and involve staff who are present (e.g., nursing, administration, patient advocates) at the time of the complaint. Complaints typically involve minor issues, such as a housekeeping complaint or the Care Manager did not answer a question.

Division of Health Benefits

The North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Health Benefits, formerly the Division of Medical Assistance, responsible for operating the State Medicaid programs.

EBCI Tribal Option

The EBCI Tribal Option is a managed care option for federally recognized tribal members and other individuals eligible to receive Indian Health Services (IHS). The EBCI Tribal Option will be established as an Indian Managed Care Entity, defined in 42 C.F.R § 438.14(a).

EBCI Tribal Option Contract

The Indian Managed Care Entity Contract #30-2020-014-DHB between the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Health Benefits and Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority. Subsequent revisions and amendments are also included in this definition. This Contract is also referred to as the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract.

EBCI Tribal Option PCCM Entity

The program defined in the State Plan of North Carolina, administered by the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Health Benefits, and operated by CIHA under the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract, for providing Care Management support and other managed care functions to Medicaid populations using a Medical Home model. This Program is referred to as the EBCI Tribal Option.

Grievance

An expression of dissatisfaction about any matter other than an Adverse Determination or Adverse Benefit Determination, including, but not limited to, quality of care or services provided and aspects

PROCEDURE:

Non-discrimination grievances shall be filed and processed in accordance to the EBCI Tribal Option Non-Discrimination Policy for Employees, Members, and Providers and will be recorded into the Grievance Tracking System and included in the Member or Provider Grievance report, which is submitted quarterly to NCDHHS, as required by the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract.

If a Member's Medicaid clinical coverage/service or Medicaid eligibility is reduced, terminated, or denied, a Member will receive a letter from either NC Medicaid Direct or from their Local Management Entity/Managed Care Organization (LME/MCO). The path for the Member's appeal depends on whether he/she received an Adverse Benefit Determination from an LME/MCO or an Adverse Determination from NC Medicaid Direct. No matter the sender, the letter will explain how to file an appeal and what happens next. For more information about LME/MCO appeal rights, the Member may reference the LME/MCO member handbook. EBCI Tribal Option Member and Provider Network Services shall understand procedures for handling Appeals for Adverse Benefit Determinations and Adverse Determinations and shall assist Members in following the procedures. The procedures for filing an appeal for an NC Medicaid Adverse Determination shall be documented in the EBCI Tribal Option Member Handbook and in the Member's section of the EBCI Tribal Option website at <https://ebcitrivaloption.com/members/grievances-and-appeals/>. EBCI Tribal Option Member or Provider Services shall assist the Member or provider in filing an appeal or shall make a referral for the Member or provider to get assistance in filing an appeal, requesting a State Fair Hearing by the NC Office of Administrative Hearings. Members may request an appeal (a State Fair Hearing) by contacting the NC Office of Administrative Hearings at 984-236-1860, or the Member can follow the instructions on the Appeal Request Form he/she was sent in the mail.

If a Member needs assistance understanding the Adverse Determination letter or the State Fair Hearing process, he/she can contact:

- EBCI Tribal Option Member Services
1-800-260-9992 (TTY 711), or
- Medicaid Appeals Line
919-855-4350, or
- NC Medicaid Ombudsman
877-201-3750

Member Grievances and Appeals

The EBCI Tribal Option Member Services Department shall be responsible for explaining to EBCI Tribal Option Members how to file a grievance or use the State Fair Hearing process. Members have the right to file a grievance with the EBCI Tribal Option or file directly with NCDHHS, Division of Health Benefits. In the event that the grievance concerns a staff person or action taken by the EBCI Tribal Option, the grievance shall be reassigned by the EBCI Tribal Option Director to another section or staff to review and investigate the grievance in order to avoid any conflict of interest or bias.

The determination process for Indian Health Service (IHS) eligibility is unique to the EBCI Tribal Option. An individual may appeal IHS eligibility if denied but still feels that he/she is entitled to these services. The individual can appeal by contacting the CIHA Patient Access Manager at 1-828-497-9163. This appeal will be processed by the CIHA Eligibility Committee, and a decision will be rendered within thirty (30) days of filing the appeal. IHS appeals are not to be considered by the EBCI Tribal Option Member and Provider Grievance Policy as IHS determination must be granted prior to being a Member of the EBCI Tribal Option.

Members may file a grievance about, but not limited to, the EBCI Tribal Option staff, Care Managers, the PCP Network, or other Members regarding quality of care, dissatisfaction with Care Manager or other EBCI Tribal Option staff, complaints related to PCPs, professional conduct, failure to respect Member's rights, and program fraud.

Members will receive information about the grievance process, including how to file a grievance, how to request the NCDHHS's review of the EBCI Tribal Option decision, or how to file a grievance with the NCDHHS's via the EBCI Tribal Option Member's Handbook, the EBCI Tribal Option website at www.ebcitribaloption.com, and/or by calling EBCI Tribal Option Member Services.

The EBCI Tribal Option Member Services Manager may assist the Member in filing a complaint/grievance or requesting assistance from the NC Medicaid Ombudsman for further assistance at 1-877-201-3750.

EBCI Tribal Option Members and Providers may contact the NC Department of Health and Human Services. The process for filing a complaint is available online at <https://www.ncdhhs.gov/media/8251/open>.

Additional information can be obtained by contacting the NCDHHS Compliance Attorney at 919-855-4800 or by mail at:

Medicaid Managed Care Ombudsman Program

The NC Medicaid Ombudsman is a resource that Members can contact if they need assistance with their health care needs. The NC Medicaid Ombudsman is an independently operated, nonprofit organization whose only job is to ensure that individuals and families who receive NC Medicaid get access to the care they need. The NC Medicaid Ombudsman can:

- Answer questions about benefits;
- Help a Member understand their rights and responsibilities;
- Provide information about Medicaid and Medicaid Managed Care;
- Answer questions about enrolling in or disenrolling from a health plan;
- Help a Member understand a notice received;
- Refer a Member to other agencies that may be able to assist with their health care needs;
- Help resolve issues a Member is having with a provider, PCCM, Member, or health plan;
- Be an advocate for Members dealing with an issue or a complaint;
- Provide information to assist a Member with an appeal, grievance, mediation, or fair hearing;
- Refer the Member to legal assistance for help in resolving a problem with their health care (or if the provider needs help to resolve a problem);
- The NC Medicaid Ombudsman may be contacted at 1-877-201-3750 from 8:00am to 5:00pm Monday through Friday. To make contact after hours and on weekends (except for State holidays), the online portal may be accessed at <https://ncmedicaidombudsman.org/contact/>. Select the “Get Help” button or call the phone number, leave a message, and receive a return call the next business day.

Members may file a grievance in writing or verbally at any time. The EBCI Tribal Option encourages the Member to discuss the complaint with their PCP or Care Manager or contact EBCI Tribal Option Member Services at 1-800-260-9992 (TTY 711) (Monday through Friday from 8:00am to 4:30pm) or write to:

*EBCI Tribal Option
241 Cherokee Hospital Loop
Cherokee, NC 28719*

EBCI Tribal Option Member Services or the NC Medicaid Ombudsman is available to assist Members in filing a grievance, including accessing interpreters, communication aids, or other translation services.

EBCI Tribal Option, AMH, and AMH+ Member and Provider Grievance Policy

This is a controlled document for internal use only. Any document appearing in paper hard copy form are not controlled and should be verified with the electronic file version prior to use.

This hospital policy is applicable to the Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority and other locations where services of this hospital are provided.

If a Member files a grievance directly with NCDHHS in accordance with the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract, the following shall occur:

1. If NCDHHS is contacted by a Member, authorized representative of a Member, family members or caregivers of a Member, advocates, the NC Ombudsman, or other individuals/entities with a grievance regarding concerns about the care or lack of care a Member is receiving, NCDHHS shall notify EBCI Tribal Option of the grievance;
2. EBCI Tribal Option shall address the grievance within thirty (30) days of NCDHHS informing the EBCI Tribal Option of the grievance;
3. EBCI Tribal Option shall keep NCDHHS informed about progress on resolving concerns in real time and shall advise NCDHHS of final resolution;
4. The process for logging and investigating a grievance and achieving resolution shall be identical to the process outlined for receiving the grievance.

Provider Network Grievances and Appeals

The EBCI Tribal Option Provider Network Department shall be responsible for educating PCP Network providers on how to file a grievance and shall include this information in the EBCI Tribal Option Provider Manual. The EBCI Tribal Option Provider Network Department will be responsible for accepting, investigating, and issuing letters of disposition to the provider filing the grievance. Providers have the right to file a grievance with the EBCI Tribal Option or file directly with NCDHHS, Division of Health Benefits. In the event that the grievance concerns a staff person or action taken by the EBCI Tribal Option, the grievance shall be reassigned by the EBCI Tribal Option Director to another section or staff to review and investigate the grievance in order to avoid any conflict of interest or bias.

Providers may file a grievance about, but not limited to, the EBCI Tribal Option staff, Care Managers, the PCP Network or other providers regarding quality of care, dissatisfaction with Care Manager or other EBCI Tribal Option staff, complaints related to PCPs, professional conduct, failure to respect Member's rights, and program fraud.

Providers will receive information about the grievance process, including how to file a grievance and request the NCDHHS's review of the EBCI Tribal Option decision or how to file a grievance with the NCDHHS via the EBCI Tribal Option Provider's Manual, the EBCI Tribal Option website at www.ebcitribaloption.com, and/or the EBCI Tribal Option Provider Council.

Grievances may be filed by calling EBCI Tribal Option Provider Services at 1-800-260-9992 (TTY 711) or writing to:

*EBCI Tribal Option
241 Cherokee Hospital Loop
Cherokee, NC 28719*

Upon receipt of a provider grievance by the EBCI Tribal Option, the grievance shall be:

1. Documented in the Grievance Tracking System immediately if the grievance is being expressed verbally;

2. If the grievance is in writing, the grievance will be date stamped to document receipt date and entered and scanned into the Grievance Tracking System;
3. If the grievance was received in writing, the Provider Network Manager shall notify the provider by calling and writing to the provider to acknowledge that the grievance was received and include the date it was received. The written acknowledgement will be provided using the Provider “Grievance Complaint Acknowledgement” Letter template;
4. The grievance shall be investigated, decision rendered, and provider notified in writing within fifteen (15) CIHA business days from receiving the grievance;
5. The EBCI Tribal Option may extend the timeframe for processing the grievance up to fourteen (14) calendar days if there is a need for additional information and the delay is in provider’s best interest;
6. If the timeframe is extended, the EBCI Tribal Option Provider Network Manager or designee will make every effort to give the provider prompt verbal notice of the delay and give the provider written notice within two (2) calendar days. The notice will include the reason for the decision to extend the timeframe;
7. At any point, the provider may file a grievance with NCDHHS.

If a provider files a grievance directly with NCDHHS, in accordance with the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract the following shall occur:

1. If NCDHHS is contacted by a provider (the PCP Network or otherwise) or individuals/entities with a grievance regarding concerns about the EBCI Tribal Option. EBCI Tribal Option shall address the grievance/concern as soon as possible from the time when NCDHHS has informed EBIC Tribal Option of the grievance/concern;
2. EBCI Tribal Option shall keep NCDHHS informed about progress on resolving grievances/concerns in real time and shall advise NCDHHS of final resolution;
3. The process for logging and investigating a grievance and achieving resolution shall be identical to the process outlined for receiving the grievance;
4. NCDHHS shall not participate in contractual disputes between EBCI Tribal Option and the EBCI Tribal Option PCP Network providers.

If the provider is dissatisfied with disposition of grievance filed under this Policy, they may reach out to the Provider Ombudsman by sending an email to them at Medicaid.providerombudsman@dhhs.nc.gov. Include:

- Detailed description of the concern;
- National Provider Identifier (NPI);
- Organization’s and/or individual’s name and address; and
- Reliable phone number where the inquiring provider can be reached to receive response.

On a quarterly basis, Member and provider grievance trends and themes will be presented to the Quality and Population Health workgroup and the Quality Improvement Committee (QIC) and on a monthly basis to PFAC. All grievance information will be de-identified to respect Member/provider privacy and to maintain their confidentiality.

Providers may contact the Provider Ombudsman to receive assistance with submitting a complaint about the EBCI Tribal Option or any PHP. For more information, refer to the EBCI Tribal Option Provider Manual.

Member and Provider Grievance Training

All aforementioned staff governed by this Policy, shall receive training on the EBCI Tribal Option Member and Provider Grievance Policy. EBCI Tribal Option staff and the Compliance Office for CIHA and EBCI Tribal Option shall receive additional training on the procedures, including, but not limited to:

- Logging the grievance into the Grievance Tracking System;
- Investigating the grievance;
- Issuing resolution documentation to the Member or provider;
- Completing documentation of grievance resolution in the Grievance Tracking System;
- Reporting Requirements to NCDHHS;
- Analysis and trending of grievances for quality improvement purposes, and
- Adverse Benefit Determination Appeals and procedures conducted by a Member's LME/MCO or its vendors.

Reporting

Member grievances filed shall be included in the Member Grievance Log within the Grievance Tracking System and a report submitted to NCDHHS on a quarterly basis in the format required by the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract. EBCI Tribal Option shall maintain records of all Member grievances, inclusive of allegations of discrimination, and shall review the information and trends as part of its ongoing monitoring and quality improvement procedures. The quarterly report on grievances, as required by the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract, shall include the total number of grievance requests filed with the EBCI Tribal Option, the basis for each grievance, the status of pending requests, the disposition of any requests that have been resolved, and time to resolution.

Provider grievances filed shall be included in the Provider Grievance Log within the Grievance Tracking System and a report submitted to NCDHHS on a quarterly basis in the format required by the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract. The quarterly report, as required by the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract on provider grievances, shall include the grievance requests received and processed by the EBCI Tribal Option, including the total number of grievances filed with the EBCI Tribal Option, the basis for each grievance, the status of pending requests, the disposition of any requests that have been resolved, and time to resolution as outlined in 42 C.F.R. § 438.66(c)(3).
