POLICY:

EBCI Tribal Option shall comply with 42 CFR § 438.104. EBCI Tribal Option shall comply with all marketing requirements, including monitoring and overseeing the activities of its subcontractors and all persons acting for, or on behalf of, the EBCI Tribal Option.

DEFINITIONS:

Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority (CIHA)

An independent component unit of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians tribal government to oversee, supervise, and direct the operations of the Cherokee Indian Hospital and other health programs assigned to CIHA by the EBCI Tribal Council.

Code of Federal Regulations (CFR)

A compilation of administrative laws governing federal regulatory agency practice and procedures. This includes such agencies as Medicaid, Medicare, and Indian Health Service.

Division of Health Benefits

The North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Health Benefits, formerly the Division of Medical Assistance, responsible for operating the State Medicaid programs.

EBCI Tribal Option

The unit within CIHA that is responsible for managing the Indian Managed Care Entity and serves as the point of contact with the Division of Health Benefits, within the NC Department of Health and Human Services.

EBCI Tribal Option Contract

The Indian Managed Care Entity Contract #30-2020-014-DHB between the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Health Benefits and Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority. Subsequent revisions and amendments are also included in this definition. This Contract is also referred to as the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract.

EBCI Tribal Option PCCM Entity

The program defined in the State Plan of North Carolina, administered by the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Health Benefits, and operated by CIHA under the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract, for providing Care Management support and other managed care functions to Medicaid populations using a Medical Home/Care Management model. This Program is referred to as the EBCI Tribal Option.

Marketing

Any communication from the EBCI Tribal Option to a Medicaid beneficiary who is not enrolled in the EBCI Tribal Option that can reasonably be interpreted to increase beneficiary awareness of the EBCI Tribal Option and its benefits with the intent to influence beneficiary choice.

Marketing Materials

Materials produced in any medium, by or on behalf of the EBCI Tribal Option, and can reasonably be interpreted as intended to market the EBCI Tribal Option to potential enrollees.

North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (NCDHHS)

A Department within the North Carolina Executive Branch that is the designated single state agency with the US Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) for the administration of the Medicaid Program through the Division of Health Benefits.

Purchased/Referred Care Delivery Area (PRCDA)

Formally known as the contract health service delivery area, is a geographic area within which purchased/referred care will be made available by the Indian Health Service (IHS) to members of an identified Indian community who reside in the area. For the purposes of the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract, PRCDA refers to the five-county area where the EBCI Tribal Option PCCM entity will primarily operate, which includes Cherokee, Graham, Haywood, Jackson, and Swain counties.

PROCEDURE:

EBCI Tribal Option shall not use the existence of the NCDHHS/EBCI Tribal Option Contract or the name of NCDHHS or State of North Carolina as part of any commercial advertising or marketing of its products or services without the written consent of NCDHHS. In addition, NC Medicaid agrees not to use the existence of this Contract or the name or seal of the EBCI or Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority (CIHA) as part of any advertising or marketing of its programs or services, without the written consent by the designated EBCI/CIHA personnel. EBCI Tribal Option will review the request by NC Medicaid in a timely manner and communicate with the NC Division of Health Benefits (Medicaid) EBCI Tribal Option Manager.

Prior to submission of marketing materials to NC Medicaid, the EBCI Tribal Option shall develop and review the materials to ensure compliance with the following:

- All marketing materials meeting the definition shall be submitted to NC Medicaid for review and approval;
- The marketing materials will be accurate and will not mislead, confuse, or defraud Members or NC Medicaid;
- All marketing materials will be used only within the defined service area;
- The marketing materials will comply with the language, accessibility, non-discrimination, and cultural sensitivity requirements, the Member materials requirements in the Contract, and any applicable federal and North Carolina laws and regulations;

EBCI Tribal Option Marketing Policy

This is a controlled document for internal use only. Any document appearing in paper hard copy form are not controlled and should be verified with the electronic file version prior to use.

This hospital policy is applicable to the Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority and other locations where services of this hospital are provided.

- The marketing materials and marketing strategies comply with the EBCI Tribal Option's Non-Discrimination Policy for Employees, Members and Providers.

All marketing materials and activities will occur in permissible areas only. EBCI Tribal Option may:

- Use, distribute, display, or otherwise make available written marketing materials (e.g., posters, brochures, leaflets) at community centers, markets, malls, retail establishments, hospitals, pharmacies, other provider sites, schools, health fairs, public libraries, and other state-approved community-based marketing events or locations;
- Participate in community-based marketing events or activities (e.g., health fairs, community events);
- Sponsor outreach activities and events and be a financial sponsor;
- Conduct media campaigns, including through television, radio, billboards, bus posters, social media, etc.

EBCI Tribal Option prohibits statements, claims, and activities (written or oral) that communicate the following:

- A Member must enroll in the EBCI Tribal Option to obtain Medicaid benefits;
- A Member must enroll in the EBCI Tribal Option so as not to lose Medicaid benefits;
- EBCI Tribal Option is endorsed by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), the federal or State government, or similar entity;
- Referencing other NC Medicaid Managed Care or fee-for-service (FFS) entities or other contractors of NCDHHS, listing or referencing Providers who are not part of the plan Network, or including negative information about NCDHHS or other NC Medicaid Managed Care or FFS entities in any of its marketing materials.

EBCI Tribal Option shall not:

- Directly or indirectly engage in door-to door, telephone, email, texting, or other cold-call marketing activities, including direct mailings and solicitation;
- Falsely describe covered or available services, enrollment Benefits, availability of Network primary care providers (PCPs), or qualifications or skills of Network PCPs;
- Offer gifts, coupons for products of material value, or incentives to enroll in the EBCI Tribal Option;
- Distribute marketing materials or engage in marketing activities beyond a reasonable distance of the five-county PRCDA;
- Engage in activities that seek to target Members currently enrolled in other Medicaid Managed Care entities or beneficiaries currently enrolled in NC Medicaid Direct;
- Offer Choice Counseling or seek to enroll Potential Members in the EBCI Tribal Option, as this is the sole responsibility of NC Medicaid and the NC Enrollment Broker;
- Distribute, display, or otherwise conduct marketing activities in healthcare settings, except in common areas. Common areas where marketing activities are allowed include areas such as hospital or nursing home cafeterias, community or recreational rooms, and conference rooms;

EBCI Tribal Option Marketing Policy

This is a controlled document for internal use only. Any document appearing in paper hard copy form are not controlled and should be verified with the electronic file version prior to use.

This hospital policy is applicable to the Cherokee Indian Hospital Authority and other locations where services of this hospital are provided.

- Conduct marketing activities in areas where Members primarily intend to receive health care services other than common areas. These prohibited areas include, but are not limited to, patient hospital rooms and exam rooms.

If EBCI Tribal Option chooses to conduct marketing activities in common areas of healthcare settings, such as CIHA, EBCI Tribal Option shall provide a policy to NC Medicaid describing how it will ensure that Providers do not use the materials in prohibited areas.

To the extent applicable, EBCI Tribal Option shall not seek to influence enrollment in conjunction with the sale or offering of any private insurance. Private insurance shall not include Qualified Health Plans (QHPs) as defined in 45 C.F.R. § 155.20, 42 C.F.R. § 438.104.

The marketing materials shall not use irrelevant facts or inaccurate statistical information in any marketing materials and shall not imply that statistics are derived from the information that is being marketed unless such is the fact. If references to a study or statistics are included in any marketing material, EBCI Tribal Option shall provide reference information (e.g., publication, date, page number) and information about EBCI Tribal Option's or CIHA's relationship with the entity that conducted the study or provided the statistics, including the funding source, either in the text or as a footnote, on the marketing material.

All marketing materials shall be submitted to NC Medicaid for review at least sixty (60) calendar days before the proposed use of the material or in an agreed upon timeframe. If EBCI Tribal Option makes a significant change [including, but not limited to, changes in dates, uniform resource locator (URL) references, and product line name changes] to marketing materials that have been previously approved by NCDHHS, EBCI Tribal Option must resubmit the materials, in accordance with this section, for NC Medicaid's review and approval.
